

“How we can do it” is Youth exchange project. 35 young people from Slovakia, Sicily, Ireland, Bulgaria, Portugal, Romania and Wales will meet in the middle of Slovakia, in the small village Prenčov.

Our common goal is to develop managing skills in the fields of community projects focusing on topics like permacultura, arts and handycraft. We will connect to the country, culture and people around and make project which will live even after we are left.

And so we will do a lot of teambuilding activities

And lot of handycraft

And lot of discussions, brainstorming and presentations.

Also we will have an excellent lecturers in the fields. So we can discover, how changes are possible. How we can be the change, or simply: „How we can do it!“

Dates of the exchange: 14.7. – 1.8.

Age of participants: 18 to 30

Funding: All costs are covered, including travel and insurance. (for limits of travel costs ask in your national organization)
